Thai Tea Concentrate (Original)

Asia Farm Thai Tea Concentrate is a product that can be used to make Thai tea quickly and easily. It is a concentrated liquid that contains a blend of original Thai tea leaves, sugar, and spices, which are all ingredients typically used in Thai tea.

To use Asia Farm Thai Tea Concentrate, you simply need to mix it with hot / cold water and ice to make a refreshing and delicious Thai tea.

You can also customize the flavor to your liking by adjusting the amount of concentrate you use or spices.

This product is a popular choice for people who enjoy Thai tea but want a more convenient way to make it at home or in a commercial setting. It is also a great option for those who may not have access to traditional Thai tea ingredients or who may not have the time to make it from scratch.

Overall, Asia Farm Thai Tea Concentrate is a convenient and tasty way to enjoy the flavors of Thai tea without the hassle of preparing it from scratch.
